

Make a difference in children's lives

KU Children's Services (KU) is one of the most respected early education providers in Australia and has an enviable reputation for the quality of our services. 98% of KU centres meet or exceed the National Quality Standards.

KU Children's Services received Australian Government funding to operate a state-wide Inclusion Agency in NSW, Qld and VIC as part of the new Inclusion Support Programme (ISP). The ISP "supports mainstream ECCC services to improve their capacity and capability to provide quality inclusive practices, address participation barriers and include children with additional needs alongside their typically developing peers".

Various opportunities to be part of KU's Inclusion Agency team

We have excellent opportunities for experienced educators with a degree in early childhood to use their skills to support other educators to make a difference.

These positions are Senior Inclusion Professional, Inclusion Professionals and Office Administrator and Web Support with positions available in Sydney Metro North, Sydney Metro South and the Hunter Inclusion Hubs. Educators from indigenous or Torres Strait Islander background are strongly encouraged to apply.

Qualifications and Experience

To be successful in this position, you will have:

- A University degree in Early Childhood or equivalent
- A current Working with Children Number (NSW)
- Demonstrable experience leading diverse teams
- Extensive knowledge of inclusive practice and a clear understanding of inclusion and the National Quality Framework
- A current driver's license and access to a comprehensively insured vehicle.

These positions are funded as a fixed term, full time contract up to December 2018.

If you are passionate about the importance in promoting inclusive practice we want to hear from you!

Applying for the position

Applicants should address the criteria outlined in the position description, under Experience, Knowledge and Skills which should also include:

- A brief cover letter outlining why you are applying for the position;
- Resume with recent work experience and relevant qualifications;
