

MACQUARIE
University
SYDNEY · AUSTRALIA

Macquarie University is seeking an Aboriginal Cultural Training Coordinator to develop and implement programs and training that contribute to building the University's cultural capacity and competence.

Macquarie University is bold and innovative. Globally recognised as one of Australia's leading research universities, Macquarie is a place where extraordinary new possibilities come to light. We've helped people to hear, introduced wireless internet technology to the world and broken through traditional boundaries by appointing Australia's first female vice-chancellor.

At Macquarie you'll join a vibrant community of diverse perspectives, all working towards a brighter future for our communities and our planet. Surrounded by beautiful parkland campus, our students and staff are free to explore and discover, supported by facilities including a high-tech library, private teaching hospital, gym and pools, childcare facilities, a campus train station and the newly expanded Macquarie Centre shopping complex next door.

The Deputy Vice-Chancellor – Academic (DVC – A) portfolio has a key role in overseeing the development of a balanced academic staff profile for the University as well as the capabilities of the academy. The portfolio also oversees the development and execution of the Indigenous strategy across the University, as well as sustainability, widening participation, and the University Art Gallery.

Walanga Muru, located within the DVC – A Office, is a culturally safe environment that leads the development and implementation of the University's Indigenous engagement and advancement strategies.

Join us and start seeing the world in a different light.
