

Coordinator Aboriginal Participation and Development- Northern Territory

Bluearth Foundation is seeking a positive self-motivated individual to lead our Aboriginal programs in Northern Territory and Northern Western Australia and coordinate all other programs in the region.

Based in Alice Springs or Darwin, the role involves both direct delivery of Bluearth's physical activity programs in schools and early childhood settings as well as leading the management of Bluearth's relationships and delivery of programs to improve Aboriginal health and wellbeing.

For further information including application process please visit <https://www.bluearth.org/employment/> or call Wendy Gillett on 0409 141 135.