Working at the ABC

The ABC is the nation's most trusted and independent source of Australian conversations, culture, and stories. With over 4,000 employees from diverse backgrounds, located across over 50 locations around Australia and overseas, we are proud to create, curate and deliver high-quality programming that informs, educates and entertains Australian communities. The ABC is a great place to work; we provide various opportunities for Indigenous staff, including attending the national Indigenous staff conference, activities during NAIDOC week, regular networking events and mentoring support.

You'll have a friendly and supportive environment to learn and grow in, with a vibrant, dynamic and cohesive team and a manager who will help you with any questions and give you regular opportunities to talk about your progress. You'll also have access to a network of Indigenous staff and support from the ABC's Indigenous Employment Manager.

About the Role

We are looking for a Regional Trainee who'll gain fantastic experience creating broadcast, digital, social media and mobile content for the ABC. The role includes:

- Suggesting, researching and creating compelling local radio, video and digital content
- Pre-recording interviews, taking and editing photos; shooting and producing videos and uploading digital and social media content
- Developing your reporting skills
- Developing your producing skills
- Developing production skills with all studio and field equipment

About You

Are you interested in telling and sharing stories? If you are, then this job is for you. You'll be supported in this role by mentors and staff on location who'll train you in many of the roles undertaken in regional bureaus. We're looking for an enthusiastic and self-motivated person who can bring a perspective from their culture and who is keen to tell and share stories to our audiences. Appropriate support and mentoring will be provided to facilitate your success in this role.

- Knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander cultures
- Ability to engage with diverse communities and understand issues that affect the local audience
- An interest in broadcast, digital and social media technology with experience publishing on social media alongside using it as a research tool
- Sound editorial skills with the ability to source and analyse information
- This vacancy is open only to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants
