

Male Senior Aboriginal Health Worker (Correctional Health)

Parklea Corrections Complex

Employment Type: Maximum Term Full Time/ Part Time commencing March 2019 up to 7 years

Hours per week: Up to 38 hours per week

Salary: $80,971 to $84,112 pro rata

Reference: JR1055776

St Vincent's is contracted by leading service providers MTC Broadspectrum to deliver health services to Parklea Correctional Centre – a major Sydney prison with capacity for 1,816 male inmates.

The provision of healthcare is a vital part of an inmate's life. We've established St Vincent's Correctional Health Services because of the unique difference corrective health professionals can make.

In 1838, when the Sisters of Charity who founded St Vincent's arrived in Sydney from Ireland, they immediately went to the Parramatta Female Factory, where they made an important difference to the lives of hundreds of women convicts there. Similarly today, St Vincent's Correctional Health aims to make a major difference by providing multidisciplinary healthcare to inmates at Parklea Correctional Complex.

Position Summary:

A vacancy exists in the above unit within the Parklea Corrections Complex for a highly motivated Male Senior Aboriginal Health Worker with appropriate knowledge and skills to join our friendly and supportive team. Our progressive and innovative team offers development opportunities for our staff and a caring environment for the delivery of high quality patient centred care. The role will be required to work in partnership with correctional health staff to deliver culturally appropriate and patient centred services to the patients of Parklea Correctional Complex.

As Senior Aboriginal Health Worker you will have the opportunity to make a significant impact on an individual and the community. You will serve as a critical link to identifying the health care needs of the individual patient and promote health and wellbeing.
