

Barang Regional Alliance Ltd

Barang CEO

18-month contract

Barang a not-for-profit Aboriginal organisation is seeking a new CEO to lead a small team and create a clear view for the future of Aboriginal communities. This will be accompanied by an ability to recognise and leverage opportunities to drive reform and raise relevant issues impacting the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities within the Central Coast of NSW.

Barang seeks to drive reforms through actively influencing local decision making to reduce the social and economic disadvantage gap between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Australians to create an empowered community.

As CEO, you will establish strong and cohesive working partnerships with Barang's Backbone organisations and internal and external stakeholders to achieve Barang's vision and long-term goals.

All applicants must identify themselves as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.

Your success profile will include:

- Proven executive leadership experience in a similar role
- Extensive experience in developing and successfully implementing a strategic plan
- Relevant degree or equivalent work experience
- Demonstrated capability in identifying, negotiating and leveraging opportunities for Aboriginal communities
- Extensive working knowledge of current Aboriginal community concerns, trends and practices
- Experience working in or with State, Territory or Commonwealth Governments
- Superior ability to develop and retain strategic relationships
- Proven ability to inspire and drive an organisation through positive attitude and results focus
- Exceptional communication, interpersonal, influencing and professional networking skills
- Demonstrated ability to lead, manage change, and drive a culture of collaboration and reform
- Excellent strategic thinking and financial management
- Experience in managing significant projects with a strong record of achieving results
