Shape the future of arts and culture in NSW

Planning &
Environment

Opportunity

Fostering the success and future of arts and culture in NSW, the Government's vision is for NSW to be known for its bold and exciting arts and culture that engages the community and reflects the State's rich diversity.

Overseeing a complex portfolio including Create NSW, and working with institutions such as the Sydney Opera House, Art Gallery of NSW, The Australian Museum, Museum of Applied Science and State Library of NSW, the Deputy Secretary Arts and Culture is instrumental in the arts sector's ongoing development and growth.

The Role

- Reporting to the Secretary of the Department of Planning & Environment, develop the strategy to further grow the breadth and scope of the Arts and Culture portfolio while overseeing the effective and efficient delivery of services to the sector
- Provide expert advice to the Secretary and work with the Minister on developing arts and cultural policy for the future
- Nurture constructive working relationships with a wide range of industry and government stakeholders including the Chairs and Boards of the various Arts institutions

Experience

- Strong leadership skills gained in a multi-faceted organisation with experience in, and a passion for, the Arts. Knowledge of Government would be beneficial
- A strategic thinker with the ability to develop and promote a vision for the future, underpinned by sound judgement and diplomacy skills
- Collaborative with highly effective relationship management skills and the ability to influence and engage key stakeholders.
