Jump-start program

We are seeking applications for our APS 1 Jump-start program for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples.

The Jump-start program offers an entry point to the workforce via the ATO. Candidates will complete varied administration tasks providing them with the opportunity to develop skills and valuable workplace experience in a supportive environment.

The Jump-start program is only open to Australians of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent.

During the initial training period, candidates will work on a casual basis (3 shifts per week). Subject to successful progress in the program, candidates may be offered a full time role on a non-ongoing basis (up to 12 months).

The program is aimed at those who have limited or no work experience, recently completed a certificate course or school and/or wants to return to work.

We are looking for candidates that:

- are committed to learn new skills
- are willing to learn or enhance competency in using computer programs
- are flexible and willing to work independently
- can be team players
- are proactive in their approach to work
- embrace challenges

For further information, please refer to the candidate kit.

Applications close on Thursday
25 October.
