

Indigenous Apprenticeships Program

Experience the possibilities with a career in the Australian Public Service. We're looking for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people keen for a new career!

We offer opportunities across a number of Australian Government departments in regional and city locations.

You will receive on-the-job training while working full-time and earning a good salary. After successfully completing the program you will receive a nationally recognised certificate or diploma.

The 12 month program starts in January 2020.

Applications close on 7 May 2019.
