Practice Leader (Aboriginal Family Decision Making)

- Location: Horsham
- Employment Type: Full Time 38 hours a week
- Classification: CPP5.2
- Salary range: $101,937 - $111,619 per annum (plus superannuation)
- Applicants please note that relocation incentives will be considered

A rare and exciting opportunity has arisen for a Practice Leader (Aboriginal Family Decision Making) who is responsible for supporting and developing Child Protection Practitioners in the integration of theory and practice whilst demonstrating their expertise through direct case practice and live supervision of child protection practitioners. This position will work collaboratively with practitioners and teams to strengthen case practice with Aboriginal children and families, to provide effective service delivery and to support other practitioners. This position is responsible for co-convening Aboriginal Family Decision Making (AFDM) meetings for Aboriginal clients, working in partnership with the community co-convenor and Aboriginal organisations in providing community education, training and consultation for Child Protection and Aboriginal agency employees.

In addition to this, the Practice Leader (AFDM) will perform a more senior leadership role and has some advanced accountabilities.

We strongly encourage Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islanders to apply.
