ABOUT THE ABC

The ABC is the fastest growing digital news service in Australia and the undisputed number one news service on social media platforms like Facebook, Twitter, Messenger and YouTube. We are seeking journalists who are passionate about digital storytelling to join a new team whose mission will be to create and produce features that will connect with a diverse range of Australians and empower them to better understand the stories that matter to them.

ABC News is the most respected name in news and current affairs and the nation's leading independent news service on digital, social media and broadcast outlets. We are committed to career development; we look for potential and we invest in our people to be leaders in their fields. We believe in flexible approaches to working and in building diverse and collaborative teams.

ABOUT THE ROLE

As a Cadet Journalist you will assist with the reporting and producing of news content for radio, television and online. You will be trained and mentored by some of Australia's top Journalists to ensure the best support and development for your future.

ABOUT YOU
