Working at the ABC

The ABC is the nation's most trusted and independent source of Australian conversations, culture, and stories. With over 4,000 employees from diverse backgrounds, located across over 50 locations around Australia and overseas, we are proud to create, curate and deliver high-quality programming that informs, educates and entertains Australian communities. The ABC is a great place to work; we provide various opportunities for Indigenous staff, including attending the national Indigenous staff conference, activities during NAIDOC week, regular networking events and mentoring support.

You'll have a friendly and supportive environment to learn and grow in, with a vibrant, dynamic and cohesive team and a manager who will help you with any questions and give you regular opportunities to talk about your progress. You'll also have access to a network of Indigenous staff and support from the ABC's Indigenous Employment Manager.

About the Role

ABC Regional & Local is seeking a Regional Trainee to develop news and story producing skills including creating broadcast, digital, social media and mobile content to attract and build audiences. Reporting to and working under close direction of the Chief of Staff, you will develop the skills to create news and radio content for multiple platforms. This is a key role that will see you contribute to the creation and development of story ideas for programs and under close guidance, produce digital and social media content including taking, editing and uploading photos and videos.

About You

With a demonstrated passion for storytelling and developing a career in media, you will have a good awareness of the issues that affect the local audience and the willingness and ability to develop skills in multi-platform content making with good editorial judgment. Ideally you will have experience publishing content on social media in a personal or professional capacity and familiarity with social media as a means to connect with audiences.
