About the ABC

The ABC is the nation's most trusted and independent source of Australian conversations, culture, and stories. With over 4,500 employees from diverse backgrounds, based in more than 50 locations around Australia and overseas, the ABC is proud to create, curate and deliver high-quality content that informs, educates and entertains.

About ABC Regional

ABC Regional provides a national voice for the one third of Australians who live outside our capital cities. At a time when the regional presence of commercial media is shrinking, the ABC's role is more important than ever. ABC Regional's more than 400 staff prepare and present almost 1,000 hours of live local programming every week, while linking the stories, people and conversations of regional communities to local, national and international audiences through broadcast, online and mobile services.

About the Role

The ABC's a great place to work; we provide various opportunities for Indigenous staff, including attending the national Indigenous staff conference, activities during NAIDOC week, regular networking events and mentoring support.

You'll have a friendly and supportive environment to learn and grow in, with a vibrant, dynamic and cohesive team and a manager who will help you with any questions and give you regular opportunities to talk about your progress. You'll also have access to a network of Indigenous staff and support from the ABC's Indigenous Employment Manager.

We are on the hunt for an accomplished reporter to join our dedicated and experienced local team. This role can be located in any of the following regional locations, Coffs Harbour, Dubbo, Lismore, Orange, Port Macquarie, Wollongong, Bundaberg, Mackay, Maroochydore, Mount Isa, Broken Hill, Mount Gambier, Port Lincoln, Renmark, Bendigo, Sale, Shepparton, Warrnambool, Wodonga, Geraldton, Kalgoorlie, Karratha or Kununurra.

The role involves some shift and weekend work.

You'll work across television, online and radio and be able to adapt your craft skills across platforms. Collaboratively work with the local team and contribute to coverage for audiences in the region and across the country.

- Create accurate, concise and clear news content
- Deliver digital news content, radio news bulletins, Q&A's, interviews and packages

About You

To join this team you will need to be a highly motivated News Reporter and a positive team member with a good knowledge of local and national news issues.

- Proven reporting, research and broadcast skills
- Experience in television reporting, video journalism or video news production
- Experience in producing digital news and social media content
- You will have a history of developing contacts and breaking news
- A self-starter, able to work effectively in a small team
- Embrace the brief to deliver agenda setting coverage

Can exercise sound editorial judgement, making immediate and strong decisions under pressure For an overview of the role, please refer to the position description: Download File Reporter News - PD.pdf

We would love to see your work! Please submit material with your application online (include examples, links to websites or attach audio/video files up to 5MB).
