Various Opportunities

About us

At the Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC) we work to ensure the building industry is fair, efficient and productive. Our improved workplace relations framework benefits all industry participants and the Australian economy.

We work to achieve this framework by providing assistance, advice and education to the industry; monitoring and promoting compliance with relevant laws; undertaking enforcement activities; and using information and analysis to inform decision making.

About the positions

Do you want to enhance your career working in a dynamic and exciting area of workplace relations?

This is your opportunity to work within a high profile federal government agency responsible for ensuring cooperative, productive and harmonious workplace relations in the building industry.

We are seeking applicants to fill current and future vacancies for the following roles:

- Investigator,
- Lawyer,
- Agreement Assessor,
- Wages and Entitlements Inspector,
- Analyst,
- Compliance Officer, and
- General Auditor.

For more information about the responsibilities associated with each of the roles please refer to the Candidate Information Kit available on our website.

We encourage applicants from a wide range of skills and disciplines to apply. This may include (but is not limited to) those with qualifications and/or relevant work experience in industrial relations, workplace/employee relations, criminology, criminal justice, investigations or the law.

Employment contracts may vary from temporary to ongoing, full-time or part-time depending on the business requirement of the ABCC. Often these positions are required to be filled at short notice.

The ABCC operates in a challenging and progressive environment and houses permanent offices in Canberra, Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, Perth, Hobart and Darwin. We encourage and value a diverse workforce. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and people with disability are encouraged to apply.

At the ABCC, we recognise, appreciate and seek to harness our people's individual skills and talents. You will thrive in our vibrant, down to earth yet stimulating environment that empowers our people to succeed.
