

Inspector

APS 4 - APS 5, $70,186 - $82,923

Canberra, Sydney

Permanent / Fixed Term Contract (12 months)

About the Agency

The Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC) promotes understanding and enforces compliance with Australia's workplace laws in the building and construction industry.

We do this by:

- providing information and resources
- advising and assisting everyone to understand their rights and obligations
- impartially monitoring and assessing compliance
- using the full range of enforcement options to address non-compliance.

About the role

ABC Inspector's play a pivotal role in engaging with employers and employees in Australia's building and construction industry to promote compliance with Australia's workplace laws.

As an ABC Inspector, you will provide advice and assistance, either on-site or over the phone, to help improve compliance with Australia's workplace laws and the Building Code 2016. You will be required to develop relationships with employers, employees and their representatives to investigate potential breaches of Australia's workplace laws.

Whilst undertaking investigations, you will also work closely with the ABCC's lawyers to ensure that litigation is conducted appropriately.

You must be prepared to travel regionally and interstate for up to a number of weeks at a time for operational training or to assist in other ABCC offices. You must also hold a current driver's licence.

The successful candidate will be appointed at either the APS 4 or APS 5 level, depending on their skills and experience.

About you

We are seeking an enthusiastic applicant who:

- Has strong communication skills to effectively engage with employers, employees and their representatives
- Can interpret and apply legislation
- Can assist with undertaking complex investigations, preferably in a civil penalty jurisdiction
- Has strong problem solving skills
- Is able to work autonomously and as a member of a team
- Demonstrates professionalism and resilience.

What you'll get in return

You will be joining an adaptive, high performing and inclusive Commission. We actively encourage applications from Indigenous Australians, people with disability, people from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds and people who identify as LGBTIQ+.

You will receive high quality training and support (both formal and on-the-job), flexible work options and family friendly work practices, access to an employee benefits scheme and an attractive base salary of $70,186 at the APS 4 level and $78,244 at the APS 5 level, plus 15.4% superannuation..

What you need to do now

If this sounds like the perfect opportunity for you, it is important that you review the candidate information kit on our website for instructions on how to apply.

If you have questions regarding the role, you can contact Trent Roll, Assistant Director – Operations NSW on (02) 8255 6026 for more information.

Eligibility

To be eligible for employment at the ABCC, you must be an Australian Citizen and agree to pre-employment screening. This may include a criminal history (police) check, health clearances and character checks. Some positions may require additional checks to be performed and require a security clearance.

Applications close 11:30PM AEST, Wednesday 18 September 2019.

[CLICK FOR FURTHER
INFORMATION AND TO APPLY](#)