Cook - Bimberi Youth Justice Centre

Salary Range: $54,949 - $57,445 (PN: 00066)

Bimberi Youth Justice Centre is a human rights compliant youth detention facility. The Centre provides safe and secure accommodation for young people between the ages of 10 and 21 years, who are remanded in custody or sentenced by the ACT Children's or Supreme Courts. The Chef is responsible for the safe day to day operations of the Kitchen including assisting with the planning of menus, the preparation and serving of meals that are nutritionally balanced and meet the daily requirements of young people. This position involves shift work and would suit someone who doesn't mind working autonomously as part of their shift arrangements. This person would also have an affinity in working and interacting with vulnerable young people held in detention.

Eligibility/Other Requirements: A minimum of Certificate III in Commercial Cookery must be held. Applicants must possess a current drivers licence and Senior First Aid Certificate. Applicants will also be required to undergo psychometric testing as well as a medical assessment as part of the recruitment process. Prior to commencing in this role, a current registration issued under the Working with Vulnerable People (Background Checking) Act 2011 is required. For further information on Working with Vulnerable People registration refer to - https://www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au/app/answers/detail/a_id/1804

Note: This is a temporary part-time position available until February 2019, working 24.00 hours per week. The full-time salary noted above will be paid pro rata.
