

Australian Government

Australian Financial Security Authority

Senior Insolvency Services Officer

Locations: Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane

- Diverse Role – no two days are the same!
- Professional, dynamic & rewarding work environment
- Multiple positions located in Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane

About the Role

As a Senior Insolvency Services Officer, you will work collaboratively as part of a team, to undertake assessments of insolvency matters and routine investigations, in accordance with legislation and practices. You will be engaging with a wide range of clients and stakeholders and managing caseloads through to completion.

You will work in a team environment that focuses on your skill set and abilities to foster development of colleagues. You will work independently on more complex administrations and provide support to management to achieve individual and team outcomes.

About You

We are looking for results-focused individuals with diverse experience and backgrounds.

You will be able to demonstrate:

- Strong Stakeholder Liaison and Client Services
- Excellent Communication and Influencing Skills
- Ability to think analytically and problem solve
- Attention to detail, self-motivation and ability to prioritise

Why AFSA?

- You will enjoy excellent conditions including generous superannuation (15.4%), a modern work environment, flexibility to balance work and personal life, and professional growth.
- We encourage applications from Indigenous Australians, peoples from culturally diverse backgrounds and people with disabilities.

We value employee commitment and contribution and we provide a working environment that supports staff to reach their full potential.

Applications close Monday 29 April, 2019

CLICK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION AND TO APPLY