

Australian Human Rights Commission

Policy/Senior Policy Advisor Social Justice Team

Salary:

$77,742-$108,730 + 15.4% superannuation

Duration:

12 months with the possibility of becoming ongoing during that time

Application:

Further information including duty statement and selection criteria can be found on the Human Rights Commission Website.

<http://www.humanrights.gov.au/about/jobs/current-vacancies>

Eligibility:

Please note that the filling of this employment opportunity is intended to constitute a special measure under subsection 8 (1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975. This vacancy is only available to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Role:

This position has been established to support the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Social Justice Commissioner, and more generally across the Commission, to lead key identified projects relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

The position holder will:

- Manage complex relationships across the Indigenous community, corporate, industry and government sectors; and work collegiately and in partnership with such stakeholders.
- Have excellent policy knowledge and will be proactive and responsive to highly complex problems.
- Demonstrate excellent writing skills, undertake quality research, and deliver evidence based material of a publishable standard.
- Work collegiately with other teams across the Commission, as well as other key projects such as Close the Gap and the National Health Leadership Forum.

Supervision of staff, including implementing the Commission's performance management scheme, may also be required.

For further information please contact: Mr Nick Devereaux on (02) 9284 9869.

Email: jobs@humanrights.gov.au

Closing date: Wednesday, August 15, 2018 - 5:00pm

FURTHER INFORMATION