

T047 SENIOR REGISTRAR, COLLECTION OPERATIONS AND EXHIBITIONS

“One APS Career...Thousands of Opportunities”

As one of Sydney's most visited museums, the Australian National Maritime Museum (ANMM) is committed to being a world leader in maritime history, sharing the national maritime story across Australia and providing a must-visit museum experience. Starting with the opening of the ANMM's Warships Pavilion, the museum is undergoing a major onsite transformation.

- APS 6 $72,146 - $84,534 plus 15.4% superannuation per annum
- 18 month, non-ongoing full-time contract with the possibility of extension
- One of Australia's leading Museums located waterside in beautiful Darling Harbour

We are looking for an enthusiastic individual to join our Registration team to assist in the preservation and sharing of the Museum's valuable collections.

The successful candidate will:

- Prepare and implement policy, procedures and strategy for the management of historic material in the Museum's care including location, security, inventory, transport, object handling and storage in line with museum strategic priorities and objectives.
- Manage the loan, shipment, installation and demount of collection objects and loans for exhibitions and programs including travelling exhibitions.
- Manage a team of staff and volunteers to deliver high quality collection management, object handling, storage and security to support collection care, exhibitions, access, control and sharing.

Key skills and experience required:

- Comprehensive understanding of the role of a Registration Section and a detailed operational knowledge of the collection management and documentation requirements and processes involved in a museum or similar institution
- Demonstrated ability and practical knowledge of the physical, legal and commercial requirements for the acquisition, loan, movement and storage of museum materia
- Skills and knowledge of collection management databases and their application to online programs, a demonstrated ability in the administration of a museum's collection management database (TMS) and skills and knowledge in relevant computer languages or software products such as word processing, and electronic document and records management system.
- High level organisational skills and the ability to meet deadlines
- Supervisory ability and ability to work independently and in teams.

Applications Close: 11:30 pm AEST, Wednesday, 25 April 2018

Contact Officer: Contact Ms Sally Fletcher on telephone 02 9298 3746 or click on the JOB LINK below for further information and to apply.

Selection for this position will be made on the basis of relative merit which will be assessed against each item of the selection criteria. Applications that do not address the selection criteria will not be considered for short listing by the Selection Committee.

Notes:

This position is open to all eligible members of the community and we encourage applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people with a disability and people from every cultural and linguistic background.

To be an eligible member of the community, you must be an Australian citizen. Applications may be accepted from Australian permanent residents who are in the process of acquiring Australian citizenship.

No applications will be accepted by mail or email.

ANMM JOB LINK
CLICK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION