About Us:

At Anglicare Victoria our focus is on transforming the futures of children and young people, families and adults. Our work is based on three guiding pillars, Prevent, Protect, Empower. We offer a comprehensive network of services and seek to ensure the provision of high quality services that will bring about significant improvements in the life experience of the young people, children and families/caregivers with whom we work.

The Position:

In this important role, you will work together with local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations with the aim of assisting victims to manage the damaging consequences of violent crime against the person.

You will achieve this aim by providing quality services that meet the practical, emotional and psychological needs of the victim, prepare victims and support them to navigate the criminal justice system and establish and maintain strong work relationships with people and agencies to assist the delivery of seamless services to victims.

To Be Successful in this Position You Will Need:

- Tertiary qualification in Social Work, Human Services, Clinical Mental Health, Criminal Justice or a related field and/or experience within the community sector in a trauma related field.
- Identify as a member of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.
- A demonstrated knowledge of the issues potentially faced by people who have experienced a violent crime, particularly those faced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients.

Please Note: It is mandatory for the successful applicant to hold a current Working with Children Check and be prepared to undergo a National Criminal History Check prior to commencement.

The filling of this position is intended to constitute a special/equal opportunity measure under section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth), and s 12 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (Vic) and s 8(4) of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Vic).
