

Batchelor Institute

Lecturer B – Bachelor of Nursing

This lecturing position is responsible for the preparation and delivery of units within the Bachelor of Nursing (Pre-Registration) taught by Batchelor Institute, based at Casuarina Campus (CDU).

The appointee will work in partnership with a wider teaching team of colleagues in the CDU School of Health. The successful applicant will, through the development and delivery of relevant courses, units, programs of study, clinical training blocks, including those intended for off-campus and flexible delivery, provide expert advice related to at least one specialist clinical area.

This position requires a high level of professional knowledge and skills, experience in higher education course delivery and a Postgraduate qualification, preferably at a Masters or PhD level. Other responsibilities include contributing to the management and operations of the Division.

Priority consideration will be given to Aboriginal and / or Torres Strait Islander applicants.

The position description is available from the Institute's website www.batchelor.edu.au/people/current-vacancies or by contacting the Human Resources Unit on (08) 8939 7207 or (08) 8939 7393.

Applicants are required to submit a completed application lodgement form available from our website and include a covering letter and current resume.

All enquiries and applications are to be forwarded directly to Batchelor Institute via email at recruitment@batchelor.edu.au

Applications close Sunday 19th November 2017
