

BUSH HERITAGE AUSTRALIA

Aboriginal Engagement Manager – NT and QLD

- Full time role based in Darwin
- Key leadership position

This is an exceptional opportunity to make a very real contribution to the protection of Australia's unique wildlife and their habitats.

Our vision of Healthy Country protected forever sees us work where we are needed most: in areas of high conservation value with low levels of protection. With the help of our donors, we buy and manage land, so we can protect our irreplaceable landscapes and our magnificent native species forever.

About the role

This incredible and unique role is responsible for management support for our existing Aboriginal Partnerships and to develop new relationships with Aboriginal groups, alongside Government agencies, businesses and NGO networks that have an interest in Aboriginal land management and conservation programs. This role will work with Traditional Owners and Land Councils to achieve conservation, economic and caring for country outcomes across the Australian landscape. This role will work closely with our National Aboriginal Engagement Program Manager and partnership staff across the NT and QLD.

If you have a passion for conservation and want to make a real difference in protecting the Australian bush, then respond by addressing the key selection criteria outlined in the position description found on our website - <https://www.bushheritage.org.au/who-we-are/about/employment/aboriginal-engagement-manager> and send your application with your resume to employment@bushheritage.org.au quoting job ID: APM_2018

To be considered in the selection process it is a requirement that you address the selection criteria.

If you require further information, please contact Jacqui on 03 8610 9123.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply for this role.
