

Australian Government

Department of the Environment and Energy

Policy Officer APS 5 6 Historic Heritage

Location: Canberra

The Heritage Reef and Marine Division of the Department of the Environment and Energy is looking for people who have experience and proven ability to provide accurate and specialist historic heritage advice, deliver: national and international heritage policy outcomes, administration of legislation, and efficient and effective project management, including where appropriate the ability to work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

These positions are 'Identified' positions which signifies that they may have a strong involvement in issues relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Eligibility:

- To be eligible for any position in the Department you must be an Australian Citizen.
- You must undergo and satisfy a National Police History Check

Remuneration:

The Department offers an attractive remuneration package, including salary, superannuation benefits and flexible working conditions appropriate to the level of the position. For further details, refer to the Enterprise Agreement at <http://www.environment.gov.au/about-us/employment/enterprise-agreement-2016-2019>

How to apply:

- To apply visit the Department's online recruitment system at: <http://www.environment.gov.au/topics/about-us/employment>
- Applications should consist of a 1 to 2 page statement of claims taking into consideration the duties and selection criteria to demonstrate your suitability for the role.
- An up-to-date resume including the contact details of two referees is required.
- Information for applicants with disabilities:
www.environment.gov.au/about/jobs/applicants-with-disabilities.html

To obtain more information about the positions, please contact Ms Megan Smith, 02 6274 2196; megan.smith@environment.gov.au

Applications close: 11.30pm (AEST) on Sunday 15 September 2019.

The Department of Environment and Energy values social and cultural diversity and is committed to the principles of equal employment opportunity and the provision of a safe and healthy work environment.

CLICK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION AND TO APPLY