

Director – Foreign and Trade Policy (Affirmative Measure – Indigenous)

Executive Level 2 ($126,224 - $142,556) plus superannuation

Ongoing, Full-time/Part-time

Canberra, ACT

The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) is seeking energetic and talented people at the Executive Level 2 (EL2) level to contribute to the development and implementation of foreign and trade policy across all aspects of the department's operations. This includes bilateral and regional economic and political relations; international trade negotiations; investment and economic analysis; international security; international legal issues; and multilateral and global issues.

As an EL2, you will provide a significant contribution to strategic planning and policy development across DFAT. You will be expected to plan and control the work of a section, manage a diverse team of staff and contribute to the development of strategic advice on foreign and trade policy.

These positions are located in Australia. Successful candidates will be placed in a foreign and trade policy role in Canberra for a minimum of two years. After this period, employees are eligible to apply for alternative positions across the department, including positions overseas, through an internal competitive process.

Candidates must be Australian citizens.

*The filling of this vacancy is intended to constitute an affirmative measure under Section 26 of the Australian Public Service Commissioner's Directions 2016. This vacancy is open only to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people.

This is a security-designated position. Prior to engagement selected candidates will be required to obtain an Australian national security clearance at Negative Vetting Level 2. Ongoing employment with the department requires the successful candidates to maintain a security clearance. Loss of a security clearance at any time will lead to termination of employment.

A face-to-face interview is a critical part of the security clearance process. This interview will be conducted in Australia, preferably in Canberra. If you reside overseas, please be aware that you will be required to travel to Canberra at your own expense to undertake the security clearance interview. Interviews cannot be conducted by video link or Skype.

Depending on the role into which you are placed, you may be required to obtain and maintain a Working with Vulnerable People/Children registration (or equivalent).

DFAT employees are expected to adhere to the APS Values and Code of Conduct and the DFAT Values Statement.
