Full-time/Part-time

Canberra, ACT

The Service Delivery Group within the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade is seeking applicants for current and future investigative roles providing proactive and reactive responses to: misconduct; ethical accountability; internal, external and passport fraud; public interest disclosures and/or security matters.

You will work in a fast paced environment, enjoy a significant amount of autonomy, and use their initiative and judgement to pursue leads into areas of significant risk.

Certificate IV in Government Investigations (or equivalent) qualifications in investigations are essential.

Candidates must be Australian citizens.

Depending on the role into which you are placed, you may be required to obtain and maintain a Working with Vulnerable People/Children registration (or equivalent).

DFAT employees are expected to adhere to the APS Values and Code of Conduct and the DFAT Values Statement.

We are committed to making reasonable adjustments for people with disability in our selection processes and for our employees in the workplace.

This is a security-designated position. Prior to engagement selected candidates will be required to obtain an Australian national security clearance at Negative Vetting Level 2. Ongoing employment with the department requires the successful candidates to maintain a security clearance.

Loss of a security clearance at any time will lead to termination of employment.

A face-to-face interview is a critical part of the security clearance process. This interview will be conducted in Australia, preferably in Canberra. If you reside overseas, please be aware that you will be required to travel to Canberra at your own expense to undertake the security clearance interview. Interviews cannot be conducted by video link or Skype.

Candidates' attention is drawn to the department's policy on recruitment or promotion to specialist positions. This position is categorised as "specialist". If you are recruited to this position, you will be required to remain in your area of specialisation for the duration of your employment with the department, unless you are successful in a subsequent merit-based selection process.

Please visit the DFAT website to view further details of these opportunities.

Applications close Monday 27 May 2019 at 2:00pm AEST.
