

Hepatitis
NSW

Communications Project Officer

- Full-time, 35 hours per week
- Salary $72,952 (including superannuation and leave loading)

Are you are passionate about developing communications for positive social change?

Hepatitis NSW delivers a state-wide hepatitis communications strategy. We are seeking a motivated person to join our friendly and creative team. You will be responsible for:

- development, production, implementation, and evaluation of our multi-channel communications strategy
- leadership of a supportive and effective advisory committee
- ongoing innovation – including increased use of video/story telling
- communications with key stakeholders – NSW Ministry of Health, media buyers, Local Health Districts (LHDs) and other agencies.

Does this sound like you?

- Qualifications or experience in media, marketing social media and communications
- Good verbal and written communication skills
- Can develop an understanding of viral hepatitis and the principles of harm reduction as they relate to injecting drug use
- Good organisational skills
- Good skills in Wordpress CMS, InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, Acrobat and the Microsoft Office suite.

Closing date: 5pm, Tuesday 2 October 2018

For a job pack please visit www.hep.org.au/employment-consultancies/ or telephone 02 9332 1853.

Hepatitis NSW is a not-for-profit charity started by the hepatitis community and funded by the Ministry of Health. We support, inform, and educate people with hepatitis and the hepatitis workforce. We're working towards a world free from hepatitis.

Get involved at www.hep.org.au

WEBSITE LINK