

KARI

Aboriginal Family Research Officer

Salary Package $71,212

(Inclusive of $60,000 base salary including leave loading plus superannuation and salary sacrifice opportunities)

KARI is the largest accredited Aboriginal Out of Home Care (OOHC) service in NSW. There is currently the opportunity to join this ever growing service located in Liverpool.

Do you want a job that will give you the opportunity to make a real difference in the day to day lives of Aboriginal children of all ages who are in need of support?

The Aboriginal Family Research Officer is an integral member of the OOHC team. As an active member of the Aboriginal community this worker will provide the OOHC team with support in following Aboriginal Placement Principles, locating possible kinship placements for children and young people as well as assisting to identify other cultural opportunities that may provide the child, young person and family with a strong cultural heritage.

If you have experience working with Aboriginal children, young people, families or communities, we want to hear from you. We are looking for an individual with a sound understanding of what is involved in Family History Research. This is an identified position.
