

MACQUARIE
University
SYDNEY · AUSTRALIA

Aboriginal Pathways and Engagement Officer

Job no: 504949

Work type: Full Time

Vacancy type: Internal Vacancy, External Vacancy

Categories: Administration

- Salary Package: From $81,841 to $90,339.00 p.a. (Level 6), plus 17% employer's superannuation and annual leave loading
- Appointment Type: full-time, continuing
- Macquarie University (North Ryde) location

The Role

The Walanga Muru team is currently seeking an Aboriginal Pathways and Engagement Officer with experience in a similar role, ideally within the community or education sector. Working with the team, you will engage with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and provide assistance with the development and delivery of school programs and facilitating camps that promote Macquarie University. Domestic travel will be required.

About You

As an important member of the Walanga Muru team, drawing on your previous experience gained in the education or community sector a similar role, you will work with minimum supervision, show initiative and anticipate the needs and requirements of the business unit. You will have a passion for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander advancement and a keen interest to become a part of a vibrant and enthusiastic team.

The ideal candidate will have well-developed interpersonal communication skills with an ability to build and maintain working relationships across a diverse group of key stakeholders.

About Us

Walanga Muru, located within the DVC (Academic) portfolio, is a culturally safe environment that leads the development and implementation of the University's Indigenous engagement and advancement strategies.

Macquarie is a university engaged with the real and often complex problems and opportunities that define our lives. Since our foundation 54 years ago, we have aspired to be a different type of university. Over the years, we've grown to become the centre of a vibrant local and global community. Connect with us today.

To Apply

To be considered for this position, please apply online and attach your resume and a cover letter that outlines how you meet to the selection criteria below:

- Aboriginal and / or Torres Strait Islander Heritage
- A Bachelor's degree, preferably in a related field (e.g. Sociology, Communications, etc.) or equivalent combination of education or vocational training and experience
- Experience working in the education or community sector and can confidently demonstrate presentation skills
- Relatability and passion to work with high school students and the wider Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community
- Demonstrated written and oral communication skills with an ability to adapt style and approach to audiences, predominantly Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
- Current driver's licence

For further information regarding this role, please view the position description Aboriginal Pathways and Engagement Officer_6.pdf

Employment in this position is conditional upon holding a Working with Children Check Clearance.

Role Enquiries: Emily Sutton, Team Leader Aboriginal Student Engagement and Outreach, on emily.sutton@mq.edu.au or 9850 4209

General Recruitment Enquiries: Patsy Moss on patsy.moss@mq.edu.au

Applications Close: Sunday, 9 December 2018 at 11:55pm (AEDT)

Aboriginality/Torres Strait Islander is a genuine occupational qualification for this position and is authorised under section 14(d) of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977.

Macquarie University is committed to Equity, Diversity and Inclusion. We value individual difference and recognise the strength of a vibrant, diverse and inclusive workforce where the backgrounds, perspectives and experiences of our staff are a driving force for collaboration, innovation and impact.

We work to ensure genuine equality of opportunity for people regardless of their gender, age, cultural background, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability and/or family status, and we encourage you to apply for a position at Macquarie University.

JOB LINK
CLICK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION