

Planner - APS 4 / APS 5

- Multiple opportunities across Queensland, Northern Territory, Western Australia, Australian Capital Territory
- Ongoing and Non-Ongoing Opportunities - Full Time/Part Time
- Help change the lives of people with disability across Australia

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) is an independent statutory Commonwealth agency. Our role is to implement the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), which will support a better life for hundreds of thousands of Australians with a significant and permanent disability and their families and carers. The NDIS will mean peace of mind for every Australian - for anyone who has, or might acquire, a disability.

We are now seeking to fill a range of expected or future ongoing and non-ongoing APS4 to APS5 Planner roles in a range of sites. Please review the position description for a more in depth list of sites with possible vacancies and note not all roles will be available in each location.

Our Planners are responsible for conducting planning conversations and risk assessments and making reasonable and necessary decisions in accordance with the NDIS Act 2013. The core elements of our Planner roles is to:

- Gather information to make informed decisions within defined parameters
- Work closely with participants to identify what current and future supports are required to make progress with a person's goals and aspirations and enable better outcomes.
- Provide information to participants and their representatives to identify their goals and aspirations
- Conduct planning conversations with participants to create plans to support the goal of living an ordinary life

To join our team, you will:

- have a positive contemporary attitude to people with disability along with an understanding and knowledge of disability and its impact on individuals
- have adaptable communication and interpersonal skills
- be able to manage confidential and sensitive information
- be flexible and able to adapt to a changing environment
- have high levels of integrity and professionalism to support our values and mission.

If these roles sound like the opportunity you are looking for, we want to hear from you! The NDIA provides a supportive work environment with access to great training and development opportunities and flexible working arrangements to meet your personal circumstances. You will be rewarded and recognised for your performance and have the satisfaction of knowing you work for an agency responsible for a world first disability service reform agenda.

If you have any queries, please contact HOBAN Recruitment on 1300 286 318 or email ndia@hoban.com.au.

NDIA welcomes and encourages applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people with diverse culture and linguistic backgrounds and people with disability. Except where otherwise provided by law, it is the policy of NDIA to provide equal employment opportunity (EEO) to all persons regardless of age, colour, national origin, physical or mental disability, race, ethnicity, religion, creed, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, genetic information, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state or local law. In addition, NDIA will provide reasonable adjustments for qualified individuals with disabilities.
