Gain your Certificate IV in Youth Justice in just 12 months fully funded by Territory Families. Territory Families employs a diverse, experienced and skilled group of people who are dedicated to enhancing the lives of children and their families in the Northern Territory.

As a Youth Justice Officer you will undergo a fully-funded 6 weeks comprehensive training course designed to give you the necessary skills to maintain a safe, secure and orderly custodial environment for young people dealing with trauma and demonstrating complex and challenging behaviours.

A career in Youth Justice can be very rewarding, your work days will be dynamic and varied, and you will have the opportunity to work alongside likeminded professionals committed to making a difference to the lives of the young people in their care.

Located in the Alice Springs Detention Centre, your key duties will include participating in planned culturally safe programs including education, activities and services designed to enhance rehabilitation and reduce the risk of re-offending.

To be successful you require demonstrated experience working with vulnerable young people, an understanding of adolescent development models and theories, and a commitment to encouraging the social development and improvement of the welfare of children and young people.

If successful you will need to hold or have the ability to obtain a NT Drivers Licence, Working with Children Certificate and National Police Clearance.
