

Psychologist – Senior (Addictions and Mental Health)

Temporary full time (up to 5 months)

Inala

About the Role: As a Senior Psychologist, you will deliver specialised psychological services and professional leadership with a chronic disease management focus within a multidisciplinary team. You will deliver services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Adults and Children who have or are at risk of developing chronic disease.

- Deliver high level psychology clinical services including assessment, individual counselling and group processes to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander adults and children, ensuring the safeguarding of clients' rights to self-determination and confidentiality for clients and carers, within the Inala Indigenous Health Service in accordance with prescribed professional and ethical standards.

Metro South Health encompasses the largest Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander population amongst Queensland's Hospital and Health Services, our diverse community expects – and deserves – to see reflected in our workplace their own faces and hear their own voices and stories informed by lived cultural insights. At Metro South Health, we commit to improving access to jobs and progression opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Benefits

As a Metro South employee, you will benefit from a higher than standard employer contribution to Superannuation of up to 12.75%, access to salary packaging, flexible working arrangements and competitive salary rates with annual incremental increases.
