About Us

Rumbalara Engagement and Family Services (REFS) programs of RAC which provide assistance to Aboriginal families who are experiencing difficulties in their lives. REFS programs operate across Yorta Yorta, Bangerang and Taungurung lands covering the Department Health and Human Services (DHHS) Goulburn (geographical) area of the East Division. The programs assist vulnerable families to improve their situations with the ultimate goal of turning things around so their children have a safe, stable and healthy place to live. We work in areas of Out of Home Care, early intervention, prevention and tertiary services, such as, cradle 2 kinder, family services, placement support and kinship and foster care. The REFS program works to support and embed the safety, stability and development of Aboriginal children, young people, their families and community - inclusive of their spiritual, cultural and emotional wellbeing.

Minimum qualifications required to be considered for this position include: Tertiary qualification in Community Services, Social Work, Youth Work or related discipline.

Salary Packaging is a benefit available for Part or Full Time Employees
