

CAREER CHANGING OPPORTUNITY!!

Join us and share our Vision:

Rumbalara Aboriginal Cooperative (RAC) has been a resource, service provider and enabler of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities of the Greater Shepparton region since 1980. RAC is a cooperative working to provide a range of supports and services including:

- Health and wellbeing
- Positive aging and disability services
- Community services
- Asset and infrastructure services
- Corporate services

RAC has an annual budget of $19 million and a workforce of approximately 230 people. RAC is a significant employer and economic contributor to the region and plays a high profile leadership role as one of the larger Aboriginal organisations in Australia.

RAC is currently renewing its commitment to consumer driven and client centred models of care and actively partnering with community and lobbying with government to ensure the needs of the community are met and wider benefits to Aboriginal communities and culture are achieved.
