Information and Engagement, South Bank, Brisbane
$117,690 - $126,200 total remuneration
Permanent full-time

The Community Connections branch works with partner organisations and members of our diverse communities to support and strengthen networks in and around SLQ. We create events and exhibitions for, by and with our communities, inviting engagement with our collections and services, and fostering connections between individuals and groups. In delivering this work, Community Connections also supports specific communities of interest: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people (kuril dhagun), design (Asia Pacific Design Library), and the literary community (Reading and Writing).

kuril dhagun facilitates community connection, advocacy, and the creating, sharing and preserving of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander knowledge, ideas and experiences.
