Recognised as one of Australia's leading private hospitals, St Vincent's Private Hospital is a 310 bed, acute medical and surgical hospital. Critical to our success is achieving a great patient experience through excellence in compassionate care.

We are looking for motivated cadets who are enrolled in a Bachelor of Nursing to join our team at St Vincent's Private Hospital Sydney. As a cadet you will work as an Assistant in Nursing on a rotating roster over the normal period of your university studies (up to three years). Whilst working with us you will benefit from the support and experience of this Magnet designated acute care facility which demonstrates leadership, empowerment and professionalism amongst its entire staff.

Conducted in partnership with the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet; Nursing cadets will also receive the following benefits during the program:

- A study allowance during university semesters of $600 each fortnight (based on a 20 week student semester)
- A book and equipment allowance of $500 each semester (currently until 2020).
- Employment as an Assistant in Nursing
- A St Vincent's Private Hospital registered nurse will be your mentor
- Access to the campus Aboriginal Health Director
- The experience of working at a leading private hospital
- St Vincent Health Australia has a Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) in place that the Private hospital is committed to implementing and reporting to the RAP initiatives.
- Support to join the Congress of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nurses and Midwives.
- Guidance with Graduate Nurse Employment during your final year of study

Essential Criteria

- Be enrolled in a Bachelor of Nursing by full time studies (as your first undergraduate degree).
