

Multiple Positions Based in Katherine, Northern Territory

About the Employer

Sunrise Health Service Aboriginal Corporation ICN 4170 (Sunrise) is an independent, community controlled health service, with overall direction and management set by a Board comprised of representatives from the remote Aboriginal communities of the region. Sunrise takes a broad view of primary health care, has a philosophy of community participation and a strong focus on care coordination. Providing primary health care services to remote communities East of Katherine – Barunga, Bulman, Jilkminggan, Manyallaluk, Mataranka, Minyerri, Ngukurr, Weemol, Wugularr and Urapunga.

Our key values include mutual respect, openness, engagement, two-way learning and cultural safety.

If you are passionate and enthusiastic about remote primary health care check out our vacancies opportunities.

The package on offer includes: generous salary sacrifice options; six weeks annual leave; assistance with relocation expenses and 9.5% Superannuation:

General Practitioner (GPs)

Salary: $113,497 to $118,262

Primary Health Care Manager

Salary: $113,497 to $118,262

Maternal and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program Manager

Salary: $113,497 to $118,262

Primary Health Care Nurse

Salary: $103,067 to $110,729

Mental Health Registered Nurse

Salary: $103,067 to $110,729

Sexual Health Coordinators x 2

A Male and Female role due to cultural requirements

Salary: $101,726 to $110,729

Intensive Family Support Service Manager

Salary: $102,921 to $115,267

Health Promotion Coordinator

Salary: $83,256 to $99,841, Closing date: 7 November 2018

The Job Descriptions are available from recruitment@sunrise.org.au

The Selection Criteria must be addressed when submitting applications.

For further information contact Tracy Stevens, Senior Consultant People and Capability, PH: 08 8971 9500. Applications are to be emailed to: recruitment@sunrise.org.au

Indigenous people are strongly encouraged to apply

recruitment@sunrise.org.au