CATHEDRAL
SCHOOL
FOUNDED 1885

Aboriginal Education Mentor

Fulltime – Term time only

Years K-12 Commencing immediately

St Andrew's is Sydney's quintessential city school. We have an innovative and globally focused approach to learning and make full use of our dynamic city surrounds. We seek to develop an authentic and open approach to Christian learning, which assists students to think critically and to develop hearts that love, minds that grow and lives that give.

Expressions of interest are invited from those with an abiding interest and passion in the wellbeing and education of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children in our Gawura School.

Desirable Criteria:

- Demonstrated work experience in this field or related field
- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander ancestry

Essential Criteria

- Good communication, empathy and relationship building skills
- Honesty, integrity and authenticity in dealings with parents, students and colleagues
- Qualifications in social/community work, or commitment to undertake such studies
- Be expected to have an understanding of and commitment to the School's Christian framework, values and ethos

Applications close: Wednesday 20 February 2019

Interviews will commence as applications are received.
