TAFE NSW is the largest skills and training provider in Australia, and one of the largest in the world. We strive to deliver relevant, high quality, practical and creative training designed to equip the workforce of tomorrow, and to grow the NSW economy.

We are seeking an experienced and qualified person who shares the TAFE NSW Integrity, Collaboration, Excellence and Customer First values, and is willing to help further our ongoing commitment to building an innovative culture.

About the role

The Senior Manager Aboriginal Engagement is responsible for establishing, leading and strengthening effective community engagement between the Region, Aboriginal learning partners, Aboriginal organisations and communities as well as guiding and supporting staff on culturally appropriate product/program development and service delivery.

You will have the skills and knowledge to build and strengthen productive relationships focussing on internal and external Sydney regional businesses and Aboriginal networks, communities, learning partners, and endorsed consultative and advisory groups. This will ensure Aboriginal skills programs, delivery and campus services are appropriately considered and benefit from stakeholder views, input and joint problem solving.

Overseeing the effective coordinated implementation of strategies across the Region you will facilitate linkages between Aboriginal Engagement Coordinators to promote peer support, knowledge sharing, collaboration, continual improvement and efficiencies in use of resources.

How to apply

We want to hear from you if you meet the following essential requirements:

- 1 Degree qualification in a related field or equivalent significant experience.
- 2 Aboriginality (Aboriginality is a genuine occupational qualification and is authorised under Section 14 of the Anti-Discrimination Act of 1977). Candidate should present proof of Aboriginality as part of their application.
- 3 Proven ability to build and maintain strong ties with Aboriginal organisations, communities and individuals to foster productive and harmonious working relationships.
- 4 Demonstrated results in team leadership and development.
- 5 Ability to address and meet focus capabilities as stated in the Position Description

Please submit:

- Current Resume outlining how you meet the essential requirements
- Name and contact details for 2 referees
- Responses to the two targeted questions.
