

Senior Policy and Project Officer

Location: Melbourne CBD

Salary: $93,869 to $113,572 + super.

Position No: 927777

- Stakeholder management
- Implementation of the Murray-Darling Basin Plan and national water reform
- Location: Melbourne CBD

This is an exciting role at an important time in implementation of the Murray-Darling Basin Plan.

We are building an inclusive workplace to help realise the potential of our employees, embrace our differences, and apply our diverse thinking to innovation and delivering services to Victorian communities. All jobs can be worked flexibly and we encourage job applications from Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, young people and people from culturally diverse backgrounds.

As Senior Policy and Project Officer, you will be part of a team focused on Victoria's implementation of the Murray-Darling Basin Plan and national water reform. You will work across Water and Catchments Group and other Victorian Government agencies on matters related to Basin Plan implementation. You will also participate in intergovernmental forums with other Basin States and the Commonwealth Government and agencies including the Murray-Darling Basin Authority.

You will prepare advice and briefings on complex policy and technical matters related to the Murray-Darling Basin, and other water management issues where Victoria has intergovernmental involvement; you will provide strategic oversight of budgets, contracts and reporting to support program delivery.

This is a fixed term position for a period of 2 years.

To be considered for this position, your application should include a supporting statement demonstrating that you meet the key selection criteria and any job requirements specified in the position description.
