- Location: 8 Nicholson St, East Melbourne or Negotiable

Contribute to delivery of high quality relationships and partnerships with Traditional Owners and Aboriginal Victorians.

We are building an inclusive workplace to help realise the potential of our employees, embrace our differences, and apply our diverse thinking to innovation and delivering services to Victorian communities. All jobs can be worked flexibly and we encourage job applications from Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, young people and people from culturally diverse backgrounds.

The Aboriginal Partnerships and Engagement Support Unit comprises three members and sits in the Aboriginal Inclusion Support Branch (AISB). As part of the Forest, Fire & Regions Group, the Branch's role is to lead the implementation and delivery of Munganin Gadhaba, "Achieve Together" DELWP's approach to Aboriginal Inclusion. It is responsible for supporting DELWP to build and strengthen meaningful relationships and genuine partnerships with the many distinct Traditional Owner groups, Aboriginal Communities and key stakeholders across Victoria to care for and manage country.

The AISB is seeking a suitable candidate to become an active member of the Aboriginal Partnerships and Engagement Support Unit. The Project Officer, Engagement and Research will contribute to delivery of high quality engagement support across the Department of Environment, Land Water and Planning to build relationships and partnerships with Traditional Owners and Aboriginal Victorians.

The successful candidate will contribute to the successful delivery of projects and initiatives such as the Aboriginal Engagement Framework, managing the land in terms of a cultural burning strategy and cultural safety; just to name a few. Therefore, it is imperative your research and policy writing skills are a stand out.

The successful candidate will have a demonstrated understanding of Aboriginal culture, and who not only can engage effectively with Aboriginal people, but also have exceptional stakeholder management skills with a variety of internal and external stakeholders.

You are a highly motivated, organised and a team player. You already demonstrate the DELWP values of teamwork, ownership, safety and wellbeing and service excellence, as these are inherent in your style and success in your professional work, to date.

This is an ongoing position.

To be considered for this position, your application should include a supporting statement demonstrating that you meet the key selection criteria and any job requirements specified in the position description.
