

Aboriginal Cultural Advisor, Ararat, VIC

- Are you a leader or an emerging leader in the community?
- Cultural support to rehabilitate and reintegrate Aboriginal residents back into the community
- Ongoing, VPS Grade 4 ($84,019 - $95,329) plus superannuation

An exciting opportunity exists for an Aboriginal Cultural Advisor on an ongoing basis within the Department of Justice and Community Safety, working across three accommodation facilities, Corella Place, Rivergum Residential Treatment in Ararat and a third in Trawalla.

Your primary function as the Aboriginal Cultural Advisor will be to coordinate programs for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders (Aboriginal) residents, activities and support services across Corella Place and Rivergum. Key accountabilities of the Aboriginal Cultural Advisor include:

- Group and one-on-one cultural support including the facilitation of cultural programs to Aboriginal residents to assist them on their pathway of potentially reintegrating back into the community.
- Engaging with Traditional Owner groups and the local Regional Aboriginal Justice Advisory Committee (RAJAC) in the development and design of cultural programs and cultural spaces.
- Providing staff with specialist advice and education on the delivery of culturally relevant services for Aboriginal residents, and supporting the development of culturally relevant protocols.

We are looking for a leader or an emerging leader who is skilled, self-motivated and compassionate, to effectively promote and influence culturally safe program development and provide service delivery to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander residents.
