

MACQUARIE
University
SYDNEY · AUSTRALIA

Macquarie University is building our cultural footprint. The University is committed to increasing our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student cohort, better supporting students in their journey, growing our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce and building our cultural capability across campus.

At Macquarie, you'll join a vibrant community of diverse perspectives, all working towards a brighter future for our communities and our planet. Surrounded by beautiful parkland campus, our students and staff are free to explore and discover, supported by facilities including a high-tech library, private teaching hospital, gym and pools, childcare facilities, a campus train station and the newly expanded Macquarie Centre shopping complex next door.

The Deputy Vice-Chancellor – Academic (DVC – A) portfolio has a key role in overseeing the development of a balanced academic staff profile for the University as well as the capabilities of the academy. The portfolio also oversees the development and execution of the Indigenous strategy across the University, as well as sustainability, widening participation, and the University Art Gallery.

Walanga Muru, located within the DVC – A Office, is a culturally safe environment that leads the development and implementation of the University's Indigenous engagement and advancement strategies.

Walanga Muru currently has opportunities to join the team for an Aboriginal Academic Engagement Coordinator and an Indigenous Workforce Development Coordinator. These positions are key to providing support to our Indigenous students and staff. Both positions are full-time, continuing roles with attractive remuneration packages including 17% employer's superannuation and annual leave loading.
