The department is seeking energetic and talented Indigenous Australians to contribute to the development and implementation of policy or corporate management functions across all aspects of the department's operations.

A range of other positions will be filled through this process, including positions which may be filled through a part-time work arrangement. Not all positions are suitable for part-time work. Several positions are expected to be filled over the next twelve months.

Candidates must be Australian citizens.

To demonstrate eligibility for employment under this affirmative measure, applicants are required to provide evidence that they are an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person.

To be eligible for engagement successful candidates will undergo a comprehensive security assessment. Employment in the department is dependent on gaining a valid security clearance. Loss of a security clearance at any time will lead to termination of employment. This is a security-designated position and you will be required to have or be able to obtain a security clearance to Negative Vetting Level 2 prior to commencement.

Should you be successful in securing a position from this recruitment process you will be required to undergo a security clearance. A face-to-face interview is a critical part of the security clearance process. This interview will be conducted in Australia, preferably in Canberra. If you reside overseas please be aware that you will be required to travel to Canberra at your own expense to undertake the security interview. Interviews cannot be conducted by video link or Skype.

DFAT employees are expected to adhere to the APS values and employment principles in terms of performance and standards of behaviour.

*The filling of these vacancies is intended to constitute an affirmative measure under subsection 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975. These vacancies are only available to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people.
