

Radio Trainee – Content Maker

- Be a part of Australia's independent national broadcaster
- Salary up to $54,000 + choice of 15.4% super
- Darwin location
- 12 months contract
- Working in isolated locations attracts allowances above the base salary rate

Working at the ABC

The ABC is the nation's most trusted and independent source of Australian conversations, culture, and stories. With over 4,000 employees from diverse backgrounds, located across over 50 locations around Australia and overseas, we are proud to create, curate and deliver high-quality programming that informs, educates and entertains Australian communities.

The ABC's a great place to work; we provide various opportunities for Indigenous staff, including attending the national Indigenous staff conference, activities during NAIDOC week, regular networking events and mentoring support.

You'll have a friendly and supportive environment to learn and grow in, with a vibrant, dynamic and cohesive team and a manager who will help you with any questions and give you regular opportunities to talk about your progress. You'll also have access to a network of Indigenous staff and support from the ABC's Indigenous Employment Manager.

About the Role

We are looking for a Radio Trainee - Content Maker to get fully involved in a large range of content making roles at the ABC, gaining fantastic experience creating broadcast, digital, social media and mobile content to attract and build audience.

- Suggesting, researching and creating compelling local radio and digital content
- Pre-recording interviews / voice reports, taking and editing photos / videos and uploading digital and social media content
- Developing program production, recording and editing skills
- Enhancing competence using electronic studio and field recording, replay and editing equipment

About You

You will be an enthusiastic and self-motivated person who can bring a perspective of culturally diverse communities and contribute to stories and conversations that reflect the broader Australian diversity landscape.

- Knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander cultures
- Ability to engage with diverse communities and understand issues that affect the local audience
- An interest in broadcast, digital and social media technology with experience publishing on social media alongside using it as a research tool
- Sound editorial skills with the ability to source and analyse information

For an overview of the role, please refer to the position description:  P446661 Radio Trainee - Content Maker PD DRW.pdf

For further information contact Cherie Beach on 88-3242 or (08) 8943 3242.

Recruitment Agency applications will not be accepted

Applications must be submitted via the online portal HERE | Applications Close: 8th May 2017