

Natural Resources Engagement Officer

Location: Knoxfield

Salary: $78,773 - $89,375 + super. Position No: 922111, 922112

- Contribute to the implementation of the Yellingbo Conservation Area
- Manage the phasing out of grazing licences within the Yellingbo Conservation Area
- Location: Knoxfield

The Natural Resource Engagement Officer will be at the forefront of the implementation of the Yellingbo Conservation Area by communicating and negotiating directly with landowners adjoining Crown land to develop mutually beneficial land management objectives to achieve conservation outcomes.

We are building an inclusive workplace to help realise the potential of our employees, embrace our differences, and apply our diverse thinking to innovation and delivering services to Victorian communities. All jobs can be worked flexibly and we encourage job applications from Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, young people and people from culturally diverse backgrounds.

The role will require someone highly skilled in verbal communication and negotiation and a solid background in conservation or a similar field. The Yellingbo Conservation Area is a Government commitment as described in the Victorian Government Response to the Victorian Environment Assessment Council's Yellingbo Investigation Final report March 2014.

This is a fixed term position until 28 December 2017.

Please note there are two positions available.

To be considered for this position, your application should include a supporting statement demonstrating that you meet the key selection criteria and any job requirements specified in the position description.

To apply online and for further information on position description and selection criteria visit

www.careers.vic.gov.au

Applications close at midnight on Sunday, 19 February 2017.