

Advanced Case Manager

Koori Youth Justice Team

The position works within a team of Youth Justice Case Workers that provides case management support to predominately Aboriginal young people and supports them to comply with their statutory orders within the criminal justice system while applying a cultural lens to the work.

The position also provides court advice in the Children's and Adult court jurisdictions, The Youth Justice system places emphasis on diversion and rehabilitation of young offenders in order to prevent them from progressing into the criminal justice system. Community based Youth Justice Workers compile and provide reports to court and undertake client service planning and case management to assist young people to address their offending behaviour.
