About ABC Regional

ABC Regional provides a national voice for the one third of Australians who live outside our capital cities. At a time when the regional presence of commercial media is shrinking, the ABC's role is more important than ever. ABC Regional's more than 400 staff prepare and present almost 1,000 hours of live local programming every week, while linking the stories, people and conversations of regional communities to local, national and international audiences through broadcast, online and mobile services.

About the Role

We are on the hunt for an accomplished reporter to join our dedicated and experienced local team located in Longreach. The role involves some shift and weekend work. You'll work across television, online and radio and be able to adapt your craft skills across platforms. Collaboratively work with the local team and contribute to coverage for audiences in the region and across the country.

- Create accurate, concise and clear news content
- Deliver digital news content, radio news bulletins, Q&A's, interviews and packages

About You

To join this team you will need to be a highly motivated News Reporter and a positive team member with a good knowledge of local and national news issues.

- Proven reporting, research and journalism skills
- Experience in, or willingness to learn, television reporting, video journalism or video news production
- Experience in producing digital news and social media content
- You will have a history of developing contacts and breaking news
- A self-starter, able to work effectively in a small team
- Embrace the brief to deliver agenda setting coverage
- Can exercise sound editorial judgement, making immediate and strong decisions under pressure
