COMMUNICATIONS CONTENT OFFICER

The ANU College of Business and Economics educates the next generation of business leaders, professional economists and academics. Our graduates have the knowledge and skills to lead organisations, design public policy, and research the big issues of business and economy. Located in the national capital, we engage deeply with the business and policy communities. Our academics lead public debate on the critical issues of our time through their research, which is both long term and strategic in focus. Our internationally diverse student body is evenly divided between undergraduate and postgraduate study, and we have a large doctoral program. Our alumni may be found in the world's leading companies, policy agencies and universities.

The Communications Content Officer is responsible for the creation, curation and dissemination of quality editorial content to drive audience engagement across the College's marketing and communications channels, including, but not limited to, developing marketing and promotional material to support College and University campaigns, building and managing editorial calendars, and promoting College and University interests through internal and external media and publications.

ANU values diversity and inclusion and is committed to providing equal employment opportunities to those of all backgrounds and identities.
