National Touring Selector Manager

Country Arts SA is seeking a Manager for the National Touring Selector (NTS). The NTS is a networking tool for the performing arts industry. The site brings together performing arts creators and presenters across Australia to generate engagement with audiences and communities through tours and performing arts seasons.

The successful candidate will enhance and diversify the interactions between producers and presenters through this unique digital platform.

Demonstrated skills in building strong and consultative relationships, platform management and improvement and meeting targets and deadlines are essential.

This 0.5 FTE position is for a fixed term contract of two years. As a guide the salary range is between $75,000 to $93,000 per annum based on a 1.0 FTE rate depending on skills and experience and will be paid pro rata for the hours worked. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.

Ideally the position will be based in Country Arts SA's Port Adelaide offices but it may be located anywhere in Australia which has access to reliable high speed internet and mobile phone reception.

For a detailed position description and selection criteria please visit www.countryarts.org.au or contact Country Arts SA on (08) 8444 0400 or email@countryarts.org.au

Country Arts SA will consider combining this role into a full time position for any applicant that also meets the requirements of the role of 2018 Producer.

Applications must be submitted by 5pm, Friday 20 October to:
