2018 Producer

Are you passionate about delivering great arts and cultural experiences with regional communities? Then you could be our new 2018 Producer.

2018 marks Country Arts SA's 25th year with a program of unique regional South Australian experiences and deep engagement with communities.

This role will deliver the performing arts program with other staff across the organisation and be responsible for projects that showcase artists connected to regional South Australia, including a commemorative publication.

Demonstrated skills in building strong and consultative relationships, experience in delivering arts and cultural outcomes, and knowledge of the publishing sector are essential.

This 0.5 FTE position is for a fixed term contract until December 2018. As a guide the salary range is between $75,000 to $84,000 per annum based on a 1.0 FTE rate depending on skills and experience and will be paid pro rata for the hours worked. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.

For a detailed position description and selection criteria please visit www.countryarts.org.au or contact Country Arts SA on (08) 8444 0400 or email@countryarts.org.au

Country Arts SA will consider combining this role into a full time position for any applicant that also meets the requirements of the role of National Touring Selector Manager.

Applications must be submitted by 5pm, Friday 20 October to:
